Pawtucket Wins a Sunday Cock-Fight, OFFICIAL TO THE WORLD!

Pawtucket, Dec. 12.—Another important Sunday cock-fight came off just over the State line in this city at noon yesterday in the presence of a large number of spectators. The birds were put into great caution, so that in case of police interference from either State it would be easy work to get on safe ground.

The battle was a squeak between Atchboro and Pawtucket. Atchboro had a blue-red weighing 7 pounds and 2 ounces, and Pawtucket a black-red which weighed 7 pounds and 4 ounces. Pawtucket won, and a lot of money changed hands on the occasion. The battle was fought between two well-known blisters, one from Central Falls and the other from this city. Central Falls came out winner.

Brooklyn News at a Glance.

Fire broke out in the liquor store of John P.
Wiloughby, at 34th Hamilton street, Brooklyn, at 1 o'clock this morning, and caused a damage to stock of $500.

A fire also occurred on an elevator in the Brooklyn Eagle office, 33rd street, Brooklyn. A man who had been in the building for some time, and had broken the plate-glass window in the door of Kennedy's saloon, at 384 Myrtle avenue. For this Christie will have to pay a fine.

Capt. Eason and a squad of policemen made a descent on the cigar-store of Manuel Cabo, 137 West 14th street, Brooklyn, last evening. In the room they found nine men engaged in playing cards. On the table a "pot" of money was lying.
The officers placed Cabo and the men under arrest.
The men are Spaniards and Cubans.

BARNUM.

P. T. BARNUM, THE GREAT SHOWMAN.

We take great pleasure in announcing to our readers, and especially the young folks, that Mr. P. T. BARNUM, the great showman and everybody's friend, has consented to contribute a story from his own pen to the columns of THE NEW YORK FAMILY STORY PAPER. Read the following letter:

Bridgport, Nov. 18th, 1887.

MY YOUNG FRIENDS.—I am now approaching the age of four-score years, and in the order of nature cannot remain among you much longer. There are many lessons I have learned during my long life which cannot be impressed too strongly on the rising generation.

All of you like stories, so I will tell you a story in which I can most forcibly teach these lessons and inculcate the virtues which every American boy can and should possess.

You will find "MY PLUCKY BOY TOM" a lad whom you will like, and you may be sure that the story which I am about to tell you is true. This is a story which I have written for THE FAMILY STORY PAPER. It will interest and thrill you, and make you feel, when you are through, that you would be glad to read a good deal more about him.

Ever your friend,

P.T. Barnum

LATER.—Since receiving the above letter from Mr. Barnum, his winter quarters at Bridgport

"MY PLUCKY BOY TOM" IS PUBLISHED TO-DAY IN
